All Staff Members and Camp Den Leaders have the responsibility for the welfare of the campers, offering them a program of worth, education, and enjoyment, and for serving as effective role models to promote positive changes in their behavior, especially in relation to the Boy Scout philosophy. This requires maturity, good judgement and self-discipline.

As a Day Camp volunteer supervising Scouts at CUB SCOUT DAY CAMP, I accept the following responsibilities:

1. I will follow the principles of the Boy Scouts of America and apply them in camp.
2. I will be responsible to the Day Camp Director.
3. I will attend the brief training session appropriate to my position.
4. I will read the material provided for me and familiarize myself with the camp program, site, and emergency provisions.
5. I will never leave my Scouts without adequate adult supervision.
6. I understand as a Den Leader I am responsible for the Scouts and will not leave camp until each scout has been picked-up or turned over to the Camp Director.
7. The Oregon Trail Council, B.S.A., or any of its agents will not be responsible for valuables or money which I bring to camp. No provisions can be made for their safekeeping.
8. I will arrive no later than 8:30 am each morning, on the days I am helping, to prepare for my campers or my station.
9. Childcare is provided for children of den and station leaders only. These children will be ages (2-6) and must be toilet trained and without bottles. Other arrangements will need to be made for infants and older siblings.
10. Remember: KISMIF, which means, Keep It Simple, Make It Fun!!!!
